The Saronic Gulf

The Saronic Islands feature some of the best off-the-beaten-path destinations in all of Greece.

This route is perfect for those looking for an authentic Greek island sailing experience.

The sailing consists of calmer seas, shorter sail times, and opportunities for longer swim stops between islands.

The Saronic Archipelago is renowned for its lush landscape, stunning neoclassical architecture, and vibrant restaurant and nightlife scene.

These islands give you the opportunity to visit archaeological sites, cliff jump into the Aegean, hike ancient paths, and take donkey rides through cobblestone streets.

WHAT TO EXPECT:

Sailing Time Between Islands:

2-4 Hours

Winds & Sea Conditions:

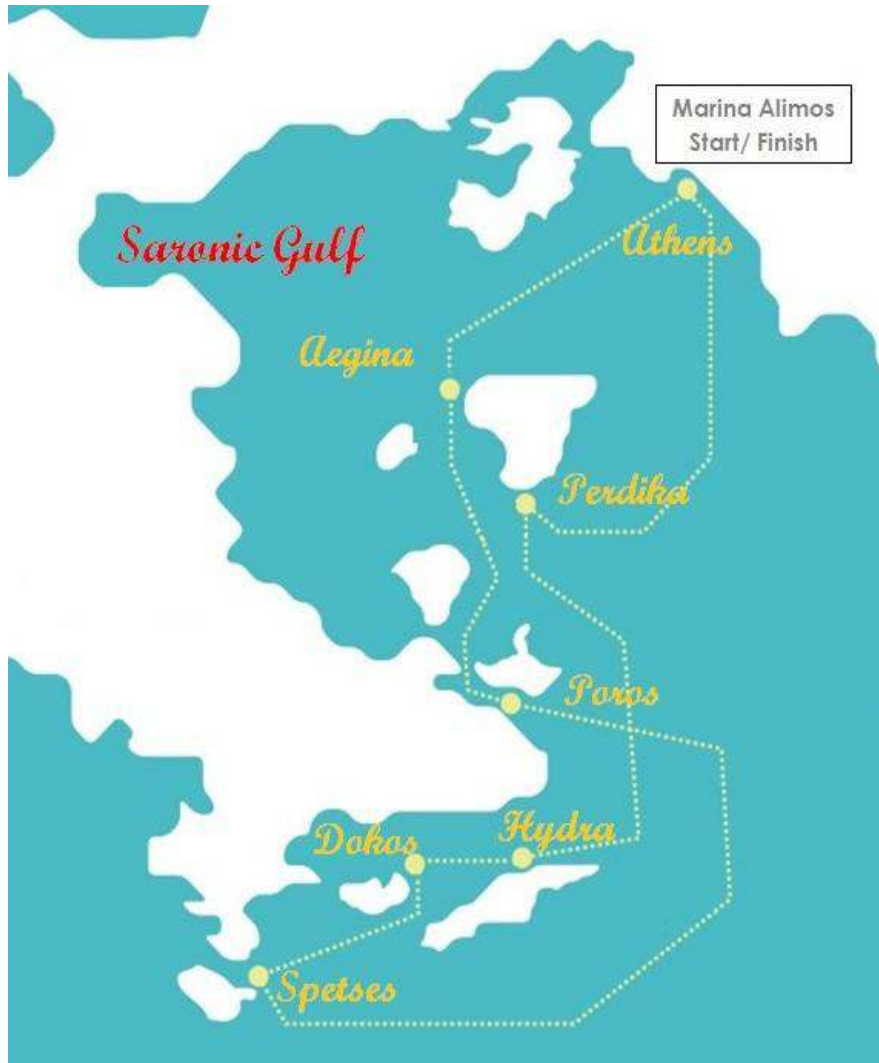

Generally Mild

Architecture:

Colorful, Neoclassical

The Program

17 October – Saturday – Check In – marina Alimos, Athens
We set sail to the island of Aegina (aprox. 3 hours of sailing)

18 October – Sunday – Breakfast in Aegina and then we sail to Poros (aprox. 3 hours of sailing)

19 October – Monday – On the 3rd day we will stop for a swim in the bay of Nspathi and then we will be on the way to Spetses, the longest leg of the expedition

20 October – Tuesday – On the 4th day, after breakfast in Spetses we will sail to Dokos for a night anchorage in the north bay of the island

21 October – Wednesday – For the 5th day we will have to reach the beautiful island of Hydra (the island with the best sunset view from entire Greece!)

22 October – Thursday – It is time to think about the return trip so we will be on the way back to Poros or Aegina depending on preferences and also on the weather

23 October – Friday – On Friday we will make the trip back to Alimos, Athens.

24 October – Saturday – Morning disembarkation routine by 10am.
